Pastor's Pause—Let There Be Christmas

When does it actually feel like Christmas to you? I'm sure for some it happens much earlier than me, as you are decorating, shopping or preparing for family and friends to visit. For me, time and again, Christmas happens as we near the conclusion of the Christmas Eve service here at Palm, as the light of Christ is shared throughout the sanctuary. I would like to invite you for a moment to reflect upon what it is that makes you most feel like it is Christmas, and also invite you to Christmas Eve at Palm Schwenkfelder Church.

Sunday, December 24th, at 7:30 pm Palm Schwenkfelder Church will share Let There Be Christmas: A Cantata by Joseph Martin (Shawnee Press, 2015) during our Christmas Eve candle lighting service. This cantata incorporates Scripture narrations, congregational singing, and choir anthems as we celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

In his foreword Joseph Martin writes:

In one great crescendo of purpose, the season of Christmas sweeps us into its arms with an unfettered flourish of festivity. The glare of this explosion of activity often overshadows the fragile light that is the spiritual center of this sacred time. Simply, and with unexpected gentleness, Bethlehem's star flickers to life a candle in the winter wind just when the night is longest. It kindles in the open heart a deep hope that warms and illuminates. It is by this dancing light of promise we discover the miracle of the season. Emboldened, we are drawn closer to the manger. By this candle of faith we see the Child of God, wrapped in the simple, the Creator embraced and held by His own creation. It is this glorious impossible that proclaims,

CHRISTMAS MARKET: A HERITAGE CENTER TRADITION

The Heritage Center once again invites everyone for Christmas Market, our special event to be held this year on Saturday and Sunday, December 2 and 3. We share this fun weekend with the Goschenhoppen Historians in Green Lane and the Mennonite Heritage Center in Harleysville. The event is free at each site.

At the Goschenhoppen Historians' headquarters on route 29 in Green Lane you will find one of the most extraordinary bake sales anywhere. The Historians' little elves bake mounds of cookies for your holiday get-togethers. Leave the baking to them! Plus their festival craftspeople will be selling their wonderful wares in the Historians' hall, decked out for Christmas.

At the Heritage Center you'll find our fabulous Christmas boutique, chock-full of gifts and holiday décor, including many unusual items you won't find anywhere else! We always have cookies at the ready to make your visit a little sweeter. Linda Brubaker, a member of the William Penn Chapter of Historical Society for Early American Decorators and multi-talented artist, will be demonstrating at the Heritage Center on December 2.

And last, but never least, the Mennonite Heritage Center on Yoder Road off Route 113 in Harleysville offers their traditional craft sale—the quality and artistry of the work you'll find there is bar none. Their Farmer's Market, which met with great success last year, will be returning. Stock up on delicious artisanal foods for all of your Christmas celebrating.

All three sites are open 9:30 am – 4:00 pm on Saturday, December 2, and 12:00 – 4:00 pm on Sunday, December 3.
Don't miss it!

Caspar's Corner—Two Pillars of the Schwenkfelder Church

The editorial of the February, 1927, Schwenkfeldian included these words regarding two "Pillars" of the Schwenkfelder Church who died in the same year, 1926:

Two strong pillars of our denomination have fallen, in the deaths of our brethren, John H. Schultz and Amos S. Anders...

Two strong pillars of our denomination have fallen, in the deaths of our brethren, John H. Schultz and Amos S. Anders, the former being the Moderator of the Denomination and the latter its Treasurer. Truly, "Their works do follow them," and "They have served their day and generation." These familiar figures in our conferences and counsels we took for granted. That is, we almost came to assume that they were permanent and indispensable, for wherever work was to be done, there they were with sympathetic heart, sane mind and ready purse. For them the work of the Church was above their business. They realized fundamentally that serving the Lord is life's first business. What a challenge now to younger men, to assume the important duties that they have left!

Who were these two Pillars of the Schwenkfelder church, John H. Schultz and Amos S. Anders? This Caspar's Corner looks at these two "giants" of The Schwenkfelder Church of the 1920s and offers inspiration for us in our time as we serve our churches with faith and diligence.

Amos S. Anders, of East Norriton Township, was born in 1855 in Worcester to parents Abraham and Rebecca (Schultz) Anders. He married Ada Harding in 1890 and they had one child, John Harding Anders. He was a progressive farmer always interested in the affairs of the Schwenkfelder Church. He grew up and was active in the Worcester Schwenkfelder Church and Sunday School, where he served in many official capacities for many years including the organist when an organ was first placed in the Sunday School. When The Schwenkfelder Church incorporated as a denomination in 1911, he was elected Treasurer and served in that position with fidelity and earnestness until his death. His quiet, pleasing personality always brought a benediction to church meetings. He had a smile and a pleasant word for all. During his entire life he labored zealously for the Master's Kingdom, and in discharging the duties of Treasurer of The Schwenkfelder Church, he brought the same dignity and respect to the office that pervaded his entire life. The Board of Trustees of The Schwenkfelder Church recalled the faithful attendance of Mr. Anders at its meetings and his expressions of the desire to perform the duties of his office to the satisfaction of all. His financial statements of the various funds in his care were always clear and accurate, and carefully copied for presentation to the Secretary.

John H. Schultz was the son of Andrew and Magdalena Shultz, born at Clayton, Berks County in 1855. He attended Kutztown State Normal School and taught school several years in Hereford Township. For several years he "pioneered" in Florida and homesteaded a farm. After his return from Florida, he married Ellen Meschter Anders in 1880, with whom he had eight children. Following her death he married Susanna Schultz in 1916. For 30 years Mr. Schultz conducted a farm in East Norriton Township and during this period he was very active in any enterprise that would be beneficial to the life and welfare of the community. In 1911 he moved to Norristown. In 1905 he organized the Reading Bone Fertilizer Company and was president until his death. He was a director of the Penn Trust Company, a director of the Farmers' Market, and for a number of years a member of the State Board of Agriculture. All through his life he took an active part in church work. He was a member of the Norristown Schwenkfelder Church, a teacher of the Friendly Bible class of the Sunday School and for many years a teacher of the adult class in the Worcester Schwenkfelder Sunday School. At the time of his death he was moderator of The Schwenkfelder Church (elected in 1918) and president of the board of Home and Foreign Missions of the Schwenkfelder Church. He was also a member of the Board of Publication of the Schwenkfelder Church and treasurer of its various funds. For 20 years he was a trustee of the Perkiomen School and a member of the house committee.

Let there be SONG... as a young mother's lullaby becomes a symphony of praise that wakes the nations.

Let there be FAITH... as ancient scrolls unfurl to reveal the living Word of God.

Let there be HOPE... as the promise of a Redeemer opens like a scared rose in the soul of the believer.

Let there be PEACE... as the Spirit descends like a Dove with healing in its wings.

Let there be LOVE... as the world feels the embrace of God's perfect light.

Let there be JOY... as our cup of worship overflows with thanksgiving.

Let there be WONDER... as each seeker's eyes reflect a glory that melts away doubt and reveals the treasure of belief.

Let there be GRACE... and discover the heart of God.

Let there be CHRISTMAS... and let the music of life begin and never end!

As we prepare our hearts and lives for the celebration of Christ's birth, I also invite you to prepare your spirit with a series of daily Advent readings. Starting Sunday, December 3rd through Christmas Day, take some time to be in God's Word. These will be listed in our bulletin calendar with the Daily time of prayer at noon, but if that time is not workable please feel free to establish your own moment during the day.

Daniel Sudermann: Connections to Schwenckfeld and Schwenckfelders

Wednesday, December 13th at noon
Presented by Allen Viehmeyer

Daniel Sudermann was about eleven years old when Caspar Schwenckfeld died. Keenly interested in mysticism, Sudermann first became acquainted with Schwenckfeld's writings about 1580, and eventually played an important role in collecting and saving Schwenckfeld manuscripts. Learn about the connections between Sudermann, Schwenckfeld, and Schwenckfelders in both Germany and Silesia.

Address Changes/Updates

As a service to our members, any address changes that come through the office will now be listed in the Palm Leaves. If you have any information on members who have may have moved, or if any of the addresses listed appear to be incorrect, please call the office to let us know.

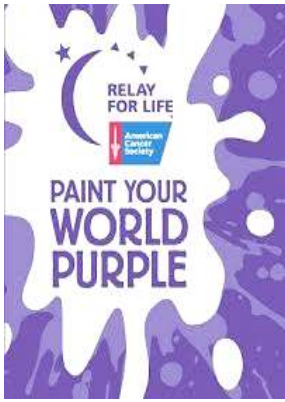

A Special Congregational Meeting will be held on Sunday, December 10, 2017, immediately following the worship service to elect our church leadership, approve our budget for 2018, and have a discussion regarding the Church's Memorial Garden. Along with the copy of the 2017 budget on the following pages, there will be copies of the budget in the narthex available before the meeting. Please be sure to attend this important meeting.

Epiphany Party

The Ladies' Aid Epiphany Party will be held on January 9, 2018 at 12:00 noon beginning with a covered dish luncheon. Please note the date change from our usual meeting schedule. Along with a variety of many delicious foods, we will be collecting monetary donations for Open Link. This event is open to all so please make plans to join us! (And don't forget to bring something yummy to share!) Monthly Ladies' Aid business meeting will follow the luncheon.

Palm Schwenkfelder Church
Sponsors Luminaries for Christmas Eve

Every Sunday, from November 26th until December 17th, you may contribute $5.00 per line for a luminary to decorate the church driveway on Christmas Eve. Your contribution may be made "in honor of" or "in memory of" friends or loved ones. There will be a special insert in the Christmas Eve bulletin acknowledging your gifts. Please order your luminaries at the table located in the Narthex after worship services or place your order and payment in the office lock-box before the deadline of Sunday, December 17th.
