ANNUAL MEETING

Welcome and Announcements

Change Our Hearts Offering

Prayer

Prelude “Come, Thou Almighty King” arr. Don Hustad

Call to Worship

Welcome to the time of covenant renewal.

The God of our salvation greets us here.

We are reminded of God’s promises to us;

We remember the promises we have made.

The Spirit is descending on us now.

Hear God’s welcoming voice.

God is with us in the covenant.

God promises to be with us.

See the rainbow in the sky.

Through all these years, God still remembers his covenant.

All creation proclaims the wonders of God.

We come together to worship God and to learn what God wants to teach us.

Senior Bell Choir “Nothing but the Blood of Jesus” Robert Lowry
arr. Ron Mallory

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Have mercy on your church, O God, for we forget the covenant into which you call us. We muddle along in our self-serving schemes rather than waiting on your word. We follow the path of least resistance without seeking your higher way. We forget our baptism into a faith community built on trust and forgiveness. We turn from the vision of heaven to the treacherous life of competing egos. O God, we turn to you to lead us to a new day. According to your steadfast love, forgive us, we pray. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Offering

Offertory “Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days” David Paxton

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly Host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

Thank you, God, for the signs and wonders that reveal your presence. Thank you for the covenant fulfilled in Jesus Christ. We want to do our part to share your love with the world. Use our offering and our lives to bring a realization of your reign among us. Extend your realm by re-creating the church as a true representation of Jesus Christ. May we be humble, teachable, and faithful as we seek to lead others into covenant community with you. Amen.

Hymn #193

“O Love, How Deep, How Broad”

Benediction

Lenten Reflection

Rev. William P. Worley, Conference Minister, PSEC

“That they may all be one.” It’s not just a motto; it’s a mission. Bringing God’s people together. That is what we do. The United Church of Christ is committed to an intentional and radical hospitality that welcomes a beautiful rainbow of people to The Table. But everyone is capable of falling short, of failing to pay attention and missing the mark of the ideals and values to which they aspire. We pay particular attention to those “missed marks” in Lent—the ones that keep others from the Table and those that keep us from fully opening ourselves to God.

Lent is a time of repentance “to move beyond the mind you have” or “to think differently afterward.” Both understandings say more than just “sinner change your cheating ways.” To think differently afterwards suggests an awakening to the notion that our past thinking has been wrong. And so, consequently, was our past acting.

Some of Jesus’ first Gospel words are, “Repent and believe the Kingdom of God is near.” Think differently afterwards and know that the kingdom of God is here. That is where the good stuff of life begins. To discover and live into the kingdom, we stop waiting for Jesus to come and do our work for us. We step from terrified spaces of rightness, look at the vastness and complexity and mystery of the universe and say, “Wow, I don’t know. Maybe I’m wrong. Maybe we can work together. Maybe all can be one.” And in that space, we’ll hear our still speaking God say to us collectively, “around the Table, in My presence, you already are.”

We invite you to join one of the four Lenten Awakening groups meeting at various dates, times, and locations throughout our Conference at Glenside UCC in Glenside, Maiden creek Church in Blandon, St. Luke’s UCC in Ottsville, and St. Luke’s UCC in Trappe. Our focus book is Celebration of Discipline: The Path to Spiritual Growth by Richard J. Foster. It is a true spiritual classic, and remains TIMELY in a world yearning to connect with the holy. D. Elton Trueblood writes, “There are many books concerned with the inner life, but there are not many that combine real originality with intellectual integrity.” Although there is no fee, please register online at psec.org to aid leaders in their preparation.

Getting to Know :

Wentz's UCC

3246 Skippack Pike, Lansdale PA 19446

In 2012, Wentz's UCC celebrated 250 years at our present site and 300 years as a worshipping congregation. We are in the process of refocusing on our mission for the next 250 years. We realize the many ways of communicating with the wider church and the world. We are currently creating a new, more interactive web site.

Christian education is a labor of love, from our worship services and Bible studies, to music and community outreach. We participate with six other local churches in Community Lenten Services. We have various services during the Easter and Christmas seasons. We close the summer season with a "Blessing of the Animals" service.

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord." Music at Wentz's is a big part of our lives. We are blessed to have talented musicians in our angelic choirs, chime and handbell choirs, flute, brass, drum, woodwind, guitar, violin, and our piano and organ. Wentz's Veterans Day Handbell Concert and the Holiday Concert during our annual Christmas Bazaar make a truly joyful noise.

Our members care about the community and respond to its needs. We support local food banks like Manna on Main Street. Our youth participate in a bowl-a-thon to benefit Mary's Shelter. We also support Bethany Children's Home, Lancaster Seminary, Christmastime at Oak Park Elementary, the Center for Loss and Bereavement in Skippack, and Cedars AA Group (who have been meeting at Wentz's for almost 40 years). Wentz's also has a Shawl Ministry that offers comfort in times of sorrow and joy.

Last year we began supporting Greenheart for a wonderful culture exchange. We hosted students from other countries as they continued learning English for three weeks during the summer. We hope to be able to participate again.

Wentz's enjoys group fellowships with Bible Study, the Youth Beach Retreat, and Family Movie Night. We love to break bread together at our Dining-Outs, annual Fastnacht Covered-Dish Dinner, Mother/Daughter Banquet, and the annual Youth Group Luncheon and Dessert competition.

The youth are a blessing and enhance their Christian knowledge with programs like Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, the Regional and National Youth events. Our scholarship programs help to continue their educational journey.

The Reverend Antonio L. Villareal has served as pastor since 1999. To learn more about our ministry, visit our website: wentzsucc.org.

Prayers are requested for Wentz's UCC in Lansdale and Rev. Antonio L. Villareal.

Break the Cycle

Empowering Youth to End Domestic Violence

WHAT CAN I DO IF MY TEEN IS IN AN UNHEALTHY RELATIONSHIP?

- Tell your teen you're concerned about his/her safety. Point out that what's happening isn't "normal." Everyone deserves a safe and healthy relationship. Offer to connect them with a professional, like a counselor, who they can talk to confidentially.
- Be supportive and understanding. Stress that you're on their side. Provide information & non-judgmental support. Let your teen know that it's not their fault and no one "deserves" to be abused. Make it clear that you don't blame them and you respect their choices.
- Believe them and take them seriously. Your teen may be reluctant to share their experiences in fear of no one believing them. As you validate their feelings and show your support, they can become more comfortable and trust you with more information. Be careful not to minimize your teen's situation due to age, inexperience or length of their relationship.
- Help develop a safety plan. One of the most dangerous times in an abusive relationship is when the victim decides to leave. Be especially supportive during this time and try to connect your teen to support groups or professionals that can help keep them safe.
- Remember that ultimately your son/daughter must be the one who decides to leave the relationship. There are many complex reasons why victims stay in unhealthy relationships. Your support can make a critical difference in helping your son or daughter find their own way to end their unhealthy relationship.

TOGETHER, WE CAN FOOD FOR TOMORROW!

Do not withhold good from those who deserve it when it's in your power to help them.

Proverbs 3:27 NLT

The Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) is a relief, service, and peace agency of the North American Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches. MCC reflects the biblical call to care for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and the imprisoned.

You can help feed the hungry by contributing your money and/or time in support of the MCC Mobile Canner Project, which will be at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on March 23, 24, and 25, 2015.

If you are interested in donating a few hours of your time to this three-day operation, contact either the MRC at 267-203-8074 or the following individuals: Glenn C. Moyer at 215-723-0888, Tana Godshall at 215-565-5096, or Earl Young at 610-287-1503. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to "MCC Canner Project" and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964.

In years past, thanks to help from people like you, our local operation processed enough Mennonite meat to provide over 120,000 vital protein-filled meals. This year it is our commitment to again meet that goal. Your support in the form of manpower and monetary donations is critical to this unique program that works not only to feed the hungry but to heal a fractured and broken world through the simple acts of giving and sharing. Go to mcc-harleysville.org, click "Get Involved," then "Meat Canning" for more information on how, together, we can food for tomorrow.
