TRANSFIGURATION SUNDAY

Welcome and Announcements

Prayer

Prelude “How Good, Lord, to Be Here” Benjamin Culli

Call to Worship

Prepare your minds for action; discipline yourselves; set all your hope on the grace that Jesus Christ will bring you.

As he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct.

For it is written, “You shall be holy, for I am holy.”

Trust in God who raised him and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Let us worship God!

Hymn #694 “Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We seek you on the mountaintop, O God, for we fear to face the city. We would rather be dazzled by your splendor on some Sinai than obey your commands in the urban wilderness. We find it easier to worship the wonder-working Jesus than to follow the Christ, who was obedient unto death. Merciful God, forgive our shallow ways. Help us to find you wherever you choose to dwell, and to serve you wherever you choose to send us. Amen.

Time of Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Scripture Exodus 24:12 – 18 (NRSV p. 62; LP p. 122 – 123)

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Call to Offering

Offertory

“Immortal, Invisible”

Todd Kendall

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly Host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication

As the transfigured Christ revealed a life offered for the sake of us all, receive our offerings for the sake of others.
Transform, O God, money into the hope for justice, time into signs of service, talents into acts of ministry, and ourselves into expressions of faithfulness. Amen.

Hymn #62

“Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise”

Benediction

Sight & Sound "MOSES" Trip Cancelled – due to low ticket sales, the bus trip scheduled for Saturday, March 29, 2014, to see MOSES at the Sight & Sound Theater, has been cancelled. PSEC MISSION DAY

“Treasures in Heaven, Missions on Earth; Finding our way to Abundant Life” will be held this coming Saturday, March 8, 2014, from 10:00 am to 12:30 pm (Registration at 9:30 am) at Zwingli UCC, 350 Wile Ave, Souderton, PA. Phone: 215 – 723 – 1186. The Problem of Wealth: As I read the gospels, Jesus does not describe poverty as a problem, but wealth is the problem. The rich man, not Lazarus, has the problem, as do the rich young ruler and the rich farmer. Are we looking in the wrong direction when we define poverty as the problem? What is our mission to the spiritual problem of affluence? – The Rev. Dr. Chuck Maxfield (Pastor of St. Paul's UCC, Fort Washington). This day is sponsored by the PSEC Global Outreach Mission Team and the PSEC Justice and Witness Mission Team. It will include worship using World Day of Prayer resources, a presentation by the Rev. Chuck Maxfield, Bible study around the problem of wealth in relation to poverty, small group discussions of how we are called to respond as Christians and more! Fee of $10 is payable to Zwingli UCC and includes lunch. Please register ahead of time, but you can also register on the day. BYOB: Bring your own Bible! For more information, please be in touch with the Rev. Barbara Pence at bepence@comcast.net

MCC Canning Project

In years past, our local MCC Canning Operation produced nearly 14,000 cans of meat for families in countries devastated by extreme poverty, war, tsunamis, earthquakes, hurricanes, and other emergencies. This year our local church community has been asked to help purchase, prepare, and can the meat needed to provide vital protein that warms the souls and strengthens the bodies of people here and abroad. The MCC Mobile Canner will operate for three days at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6:00 am to 7:00 pm on Monday, March 24th, Tuesday, March 25th, and Wednesday, March 26, 2014. Contributions have been coming in, but we need more volunteers. If you are interested in taking a heart-filled, hands-on approach to not only feeding the hungry but helping to heal a fractured and broken world, through the simple act of giving and sharing, please call the MRC at (267) 203 – 8074. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to the “MCC Canner Project” and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964. Go to mcc-harleysville.org, click “Get Involved,” then “Meat Canning” for more information about how, together, we can – in the name of Christ.

5th-6th Grade Used Greeting Card Project

Thank you for the many greeting cards we've collected so far for our 5th-6th Grade class project. We will continue to collect cards throughout the year. We have a lot of Christmas cards at the present time; however, as the year progresses please continue to fill the collection box with your everyday occasion cards. The collection box will remain in the Narthex coat closet for you to deposit your used/unwanted cards. The 5th-6th Grade Sunday School class will use the pictures on the cards to create a book of Bible verses. Thank you for all of your help already with this special project!

New Schwenkfelder Booklets

The Publication Committee of The Schwenkfelder Church is pleased to announce that the new Schwenkfelder Heritage Sites in Southeastern Pennsylvania booklets will be available for sale. The 70-page booklet contains historical and current information, locations and full-color photographs of Schwenkfelder churches, meetinghouses, cemeteries of the immigrants, and other places of interest. You will find a copy on display in the Narthex. There are maps of the three main Schwenkfelder districts, and smaller maps of selected sites. Two appendices list the immigrants, their “E” numbers, and places of burial. The booklets cost $15.00 per copy. Please make checks out to “The Schwenkfelder Church.” We’d like to thank the many people who assisted the Committee, in providing photographs, history and information to make this booklet possible. The booklets may be purchased in the church office or by contacting the Schwenkfelder Library and Heritage Center (shipping $3.95 additional.)

Altar Flower Sponsorship Announcement from the Deacons

New Conversations: Building Relationships Through Social Media

Notes from Seminar on February 7 and 8 with Rev. Eric S. Anderson

The 45 participants who attended the Social Media seminar were well informed and entertained by Rev. Eric S. Anderson's presentation. Some highlights (minus his delightful stories, videos, and examples) are included in this article. A special thanks to the Connecticut Conference for sharing their Minister of Communications and Technology.

Most Important Thing to Remember: If it passes through the Internet, IT IS PUBLIC. Don't put anything on the internet that you do not want to share with the WORLD.

There are two ways to broadcast information to a large number of people and get them to respond: Push and Pull. Mediums that PUSH require very little from the receiver, e.g., mass email, text messages, tweets. Mediums that PULL require the recipient to take some action, e.g., website, attachments to email, worship.

To effectively share information, follow the rule of seven: publish seven times in seven different media: Website, Email, Newsletter, Twitter, Face-to-Face Announcement at Meeting or Service, Facebook, Video, Skit (recorded or live), etc.

Consider who is in your congregation. What media do they use? Consider who is in your neighborhood but not in your congregation. How can you reach them? Use Missioninsite (link psec.org/resources) to learn more about your neighbors.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Website – Every church should have a website that shows your passion in ministry. Use pictures of people (with written permission) doing mission and ministry. But, be aware that search engines use words to sort. So, your front page should contain words that describe your church; your contact information: name, address, and phone; social media feeds; and times of worship services. (NOTE: Even if your church does not have a web page, you can create a Prayer Partner page on the PSEC website. This page will appear in the search for your church name.)

Email – 88% of Internet users use email. When sending a large quantity of emails, use a bulk email service, e.g. Constant Contact, Mail Chimp, etc.

Facebook – There are 1.23 billion people on Facebook. For a sizeable and still growing portion of the population, it is a primary and preferred method of communication. Individuals have profiles; institutions (like churches) have pages with administrators (who are individuals with profiles). You can friend individuals, but you like pages. You can respond to a post by liking it, commenting on it, or sharing it. Sharing has the greatest reach. Posts are most visible when shared on an individual's profile. Management of groups for youth in social media: Groups should have at least 4 administrators – 2 adults (can't let kid's run the show yet), 2 youth (agency & responsibility).

Twitter – Twitter is a 140-character message designed to be read on a mobile device. You can follow someone's Twitter feed and retweet their tweet to those who follow your feed.

BOUNDARIES

Power Dynamics – Who has the power? Who doesn't? If you are in the position of greater power, do not send a friend request. The person with lesser power has agency. Ask to be in contact in another medium and let the person you are asking know that the choice is theirs, and they are free to say no.

Confidentiality – Whose story is it? If it is not your story, do not tell it. Don't share Facebook stories on Facebook without asking. Prayer concerns should come directly from the person. Exception: DEATH - dying is personal, death is public. Email communications are inherently risky. Messages are encrypted at source and decrypted at end. Connection between sending and receiving servers is not encrypted. Never use last names. You should be clear about the limits of your ability to ensure privacy in email: "If you are comfortable, OK, but I cannot guarantee privacy in this venue."

Transparency – Make certain that others are able to monitor your behavior (like window in office door). Don't use private messaging in Facebook. Someone else should always be able to see and prevent problematic behavior. You have the option of providing your username and password to another trusted person.

Ownership of Content – If it is not your story, do not tell it. If it is not your picture (video, document), do not use it. Do not use it, UNLESS you have written permission from the individual or institution that owns it. It is always better to ask for permission than to pay for forgiveness.

Transitions – Responsibility for healthy exits falls on the outgoing pastor. She/he must be clear, "I'm not coming back, except at request of existing pastor." How do you handle pastoral transitions on social media? The cleanest and most direct solution is to set a hard line and end Facebook relationships with former congregants. Know your ability to maintain space of separation - Blanket unfriend – or selective unfriend. Remember that you are not able to block others from reading your Blog. It is also difficult to block on Twitter, so use good judgment.

Behavior – Don't badmouth on social media. Information on the internet has an infinite life. When you make a mistake, be prepared to apologize and do something different. Eric's Rule: Ask yourself this question before you push the button, "Will it help build healthier relationships and community?" If not, don't.

Rev. Anderson has given us permission to include links to Thou Shalt Not Steal...Intellectual Property \(And How to Make Sure You're Not\) and Internet Safety Guidelines on psec.org.

Prayers are requested for Shepherd of the Hills UCC in Bechtelsville and Rev. Dr. John B. Brown.

TOGETHER, WE CAN—In THE NAME OF CHRIST!

Share what you have with others. God takes particular pleasure in acts of worship—a different kind of “sacrifice”—that take place in kitchen and workplace and on the streets.

Hebrews 13:16 MSG

The Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) is a relief, service, and peace agency of the North American Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches. MCC reflects the biblical call to care for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and the imprisoned.

You can help feed the hungry by contributing your money and/or time in support of the MCC Mobile Canner Project, which will be at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on March 24, 25, and 26, 2014.

If you are interested in donating a few hours of your time to this three-day operation, contact either the MRC at 267-203-8074 or the following individuals: Glenn C. Moyer at 215-723-0888; Tana Godshall at 215-565-5096; or Earl Young at 610-287-1503. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to “MCC Canner Project” and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964.

In years past, thanks to help from people like you, our local operation processed enough Mennonite meat to provide over 120,000 vital protein-filled meals. This year it is our commitment to again meet that goal. Your support in the form of manpower and monetary donations is critical to this unique program that works not only to feed the hungry but to heal a fractured and broken world through the simple acts of giving and sharing. Go to mcc-harleysville.org, click “Get Involved,” then “Meat Canning” for more information on how, together, we can—in the name of Christ.
