SUNDAY, MARCH 9, 2014

Chimes

Welcome and Announcements

Prayer

Prelude

“At the Cross”

Carlos Staszkeski

*Call to Worship

We have entered into the season of Lent.

Sundays, however, are not part of Lent.

We have entered a wilderness time.

Yet this day of worship is an oasis in the desert.

We are here to worship the God of all creation.

We gather to remember God’s revelation in Jesus.

We worship God, who gives us choices and limits.

Are we open to God’s counsel and instruction?

Today we remember the temptations Jesus faced.

We want to learn to make good choices.

*Hymn #208

“Alas! and Did My Savior Bleed?”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Holy God, we confess our transgressions before you. We resent limits on our freedom to resist impulses of the moment. We want life to revolve around us. We want other people to fit into the patterns that serve us best. Like a horse or a mule, we resent the bit and bridle that make us useful participants in the community you seek to create. We have tried to live apart from you. We sense that something is missing from our lives. Will you walk with us in this season and help us become all we are created to be? Amen.

Time of Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Pastoral Prayer and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever. Amen.

Call to Offering

Offertory                      “If You But Trust in God to Guide You”                      Anton Leupold

*Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly Host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

God of compassion, you minister to us in our wilderness.
When barren wastes surround us, you hear our prayers of petition. In times of want, you ease our plight with mercy. In times of plenty, all that we have comes from your grace. In bringing our gifts to you, we return what is already yours.
May these gifts be used to bring all your people into the Promised Land. Amen.

*Hymn #834                      “Lord, Dismiss Us With Your Blessing”

*Benediction

Postlude                                      “Lord, Dismiss Us”                                      Eugene Thayer

The bulletins are sponsored in honor of Glenn Hoffman's 63rd birthday by the family.

The flowers are presented by the Dolloff family in loving memory of Denise.

Mission Statement of Palm Schwenkfelder Church:

YouVersion for Kids

For kids who have an i-pod touch, tablet, phone, etc. or use their parents' devices, download the Bible App for Kids, the newest app from YouVersion. It is available for any iOS, Android, or Kindle Fire device and it is completely free. Debuting now is "God's Wonderful Gift," the story of Pentecost. It is based on Acts 2:1-47 and uses delightful graphics and interactive storytelling to teach your kids about Pentecost and the Holy Spirit.

Coming Up in Children's Church

On March 23rd have your children bring an i-pod touch, phone, tablet etc. to children's church. Why????? We are going to explore "YouVersion for Kids." If you don't have a device capable of doing this, no worries, I will have extra devices and we can share.

March Challenge

For the month of March, we are challenging all choir members to catch kids being kind. You can catch them in the act on Wednesday evenings when the kids are at choirs, church functions, or Sunday at church. Good Luck, especially with the hole-punch ☺

Candy!!! Candy!!! Candy!!!

The Ladies' Aid is once again planning to make their famous candy for the Easter season. We will be making peanut butter and coconut eggs along with a few other sweet surprises! There is much work involved with this project so we need as many helping hands as we can get. Please consider coming out for a time of fun and fellowship in helping to make the candy. We will be making the candy on April 2nd, 3rd and 4th, (Wednesday, Thursday and Friday). There is a sign up sheet in the narthex---we hope to see your name written on it!!! Thanks! The candy will be sold on Sunday, April 6th, and Sunday, April 13th.

Address Changes/Updates

Brown Bag Lecture at SLHC

This coming Wednesday, March 12, 2014 at noon, come to the Schwenkfelder Library and Heritage Center to hear Anne Goda give a presentation on Stahl's Pottery. From 1934 until 1956, Isaac, Thomas and Russell (Isaac's son) Stahl produced a wealth of pottery pieces in Powder Valley, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, which ranged from simple, utilitarian wares to spectacular show pieces and sgraffito plates. This presentation will discuss the building and firing of the last wood-fired kiln in Pennsylvania; introduce the Stahl family of potters; show sketches, drawings and original sayings used by the Stahls as design sources for the their pottery; and present a colorful portfolio of some of the Stahl's most spectacular work.

We have 11 Goodie Boxes ready to be sent to our young people, but we need your notes and good wishes to be included in the boxes. We will have blank notecards available, as well as a greeting card for each young person that you can sign. We will also be accepting cash donations to offset the cost of the boxes. A big thank you to Stauffer Glove & Safety for offering once again to mail the boxes for us. Thank you for your support of this project.

MCC Canning Project

In years past, our local MCC Canning Operation produced nearly 14,000 cans of meat for families in countries devastated by extreme poverty, war, tsunamis, earthquakes, hurricanes, and other emergencies. This year our local church community has been asked to help purchase, prepare, and can the meat needed to provide vital protein that warms the souls and strengthens the bodies of people here and abroad. The MCC Mobile Canner will operate for three days at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6:00 am to 7:00 pm on Monday, March 24th, Tuesday, March 25th, and Wednesday, March 26, 2014. Contributions have been coming in, but we need more volunteers. If you are interested in taking a heart-filled, hands-on approach to not only feeding the hungry but helping to heal a fractured and broken world, through the simple act of giving and sharing, please call the MRC at (267) 203 – 8074. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to the “MCC Canner Project” and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964. Go to mcc-harleysville.org, click “Get Involved,” then “Meat Canning” for more information about how, together, we can – in the name of Christ.

Gone FISHing - PSEC Youth Fast to Support Local Food Pantry

St. Andrew's UCC of Perkasie, St. Paul's UCC of Sellersville, & Trinity UCC of Telford Youth Fellowship's participated together in "30 Hours of Famine" through World Vision this past weekend February 21-22, 2014. The youth started fasting at 6 am Friday and ending Saturday at Noon. The three youth groups ran a Service Project asking for Food Donations at Landis Supermarket in Perkasie on Friday night for Perkasie's local food pantry "FISH" (Fellowship In Serving Humanity) The youth filled three grocery carts with food donations. Part of the three carts were donations of $98.00 in cash which enabled the youth group to go into the store and become frugal shoppers to get as much food as they could with the money they collected. They spent an overnigher Friday at St. Paul's UCC, playing Famine games, as well as renewing relationships and spending time together. Saturday they ended the fast with a Break-fast Communion at St. Paul's UCC and traveled to St. Andrew's UCC for Roger Kessler's famous Stromboli at Noon, which has been a tradition for many years.

One of the youth from St. Andrew's posted on Facebook: "Well, another year of 30 hour famine is over and everyone did awesome! Not eating for 30 hours is actually easy when you're surrounded by such a great group of friends working towards a mutual cause of helping to feed those who live each of their days hungry. You don't realize how blessed you are until you are forced to change your lifestyle in order to help those who aren't quite as lucky."

Getting to Know:

ARMENIAN MARTYR'S CONG. CHURCH UCC

100 N. Edmonds Avenue, Havertown PA

The Armenian Martyrs' Congregational Church of Philadelphia (UCC), is observing its fiftieth anniversary at its present location in Havertown in 2014. Founded in 1907 by refugees from Ottoman Turkey, the church is the oldest of five Armenian churches in the area. Its name honors the memory of those who perished in the Genocide of 1915, commemorated each year on April 24, a date found on the UCC Desk Calendar. Its UCC connection is through the American Board (Congregationalist) missionaries serving in Asia Minor in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Aside from generations of descendants of immigrant forebears, Armenian Martyrs' Church includes members from Syria, Lebanon, Iraq, Cyprus, Bulgaria, Armenia and Turkey, non-Armenian members from places such as Finland and Kenya, and a number of others who have joined solely because of the welcome of church members. Sunday service is in English and Armenian, there is a weekly Sunday night youth group of 15 to 20 junior and senior high students, a weekly young adult Bible fellowship, as well as monthly men's and women's Bible study groups, a senior fellowship, and a small but high quality choir. Each summer since 2008 the church has gathered nearly 50 children, most from the Armenian community, for a week-long Vacation Bible School. The children and youth go to regional camps and conferences organized by the Armenian Evangelical Union of North America, the other body in its dual affiliation.

In addition to being active in a variety of local missions, such as the men's shelter at Old First Reformed Church and Interfaith Hospitality Network, the church actively supports the worldwide outreach efforts of the Armenian Missionary Association of America. It has also recently begun a sister church relationship with a small Armenian Evangelical Church in Berd, a border village in northern Armenia.

Prayers are requested for Armenian Martyrs' Cong. UCC in Havertown and Rev. L. Nishan Bakalian.

Hebrews 13:16 MSG

The Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) is a relief, service, and peace agency of the North American Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches. MCC reflects the biblical call to care for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and the imprisoned.

You can help feed the hungry by contributing your money and/or time in support of the MCC Mobile Canner Project, which will be at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on March 24, 25, and 26, 2014.

If you are interested in donating a few hours of your time to this three-day operation, contact either the MRC at 267-203-8074 or the following individuals: Glenn C. Moyer at 215-723-0888; Tana Godshall at 215-565-5096; or Earl Young at 610-287-1503. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to “MCC Canner Project” and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964.

In years past, thanks to help from people like you, our local operation processed enough Mennonite meat to provide over 120,000 vital protein-filled meals. This year it is our commitment to again meet that goal. Your support in the form of manpower and monetary donations is critical to this unique program that works not only to feed the hungry but to heal a fractured and broken world through the simple acts of giving and sharing.
