*Call to Worship

The days are surely coming, says our God;

The day is here to affirm a new covenant.

We call on God’s steadfast love and mercy.

We seek a strong and vital relationship with our God.

God’s law will be written on our hearts.

Our Creator claims us and forgives our faithlessness.

We are eager to know the God who loves us.

We are ready to learn God’s intention for us.

God offers us the joy of salvation.

Our brokenness can be healed and wholeness restored.

We are open to the new and right spirit God offers.

We seek guidance for our daily living.

*Hymn #745

“Jesus Shall Reign”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Have mercy on us, O God, according to your steadfast love.

Wash us thoroughly from our iniquity and cleanse us from our sin. We know more of our own transgression than we have been willing to admit, even to ourselves. We cannot escape from the sin that clings so closely. By our actions and our neglect, we have done what is evil in your sight. May your judgment help us to face the truth about ourselves, then wash

the stain of our iniquity. Create in us clean hearts, and renew our spirits. We are ready for a new life. Amen.

Time of Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Employment Taxes

While the local church is “tax-exempt,” employees are certainly subject to multiple taxes with the federal, state, and local governments. As an employer, you must withhold taxes and forward them to the appropriate authorities, as they require.

- Social Security and Medicare (FICA) – All employees are required to participate in the provisions of the Social Security Act. Contributions will be withheld from the employee’s pay check and the church will match those contributions. These will be forwarded by the church to the Internal Revenue Service as prescribed by law.

Clergy are treated as “self-employed” for FICA purposes. This means that the clergy are responsible to pay this tax on their own, referred to as SECA (self-employment tax) for which the employer is NOT responsible to match contributions. Clergy pay this SECA tax through estimated payments to the IRS, nothing is withheld from their pay for this tax UNLESS clergy have formally entered into a voluntary withholding agreement with the church.....

- Federal tax – Employees should have all filled out form W-4 when hired. This dictates to the payroll preparer how much to withhold from each person’s paycheck for federal income tax purposes. This money is also forwarded to the IRS along with the FICA tax mentioned above.

Clergy are also exempt from federal income tax withholding but must also pay this liability to the federal government with their SECA tax, as stated above, through estimated tax payments. Again, clergy can enter into a voluntary withholding agreement through the church.

- State and local taxes – PA and most localities have a percentage that is due on earned income. These taxes must also be withheld from staff paychecks and submitted to appropriate authorities per their rules.
- Unemployment tax – Churches are exempt under Federal law from having to participate in unemployment insurance programs so no unemployment tax should be withheld from pay checks. Therefore, unemployment income is not available to employees who may be laid off from their employment with you....

Getting to Know:

Grace Christian Fellowship, UCC

6208 Grays Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19142

Grace Christian Fellowship, UCC (GCF)

began as a bible study meeting in the home of Rev. and Sis. Cean R. James during the summer of 2005. From that bible study, twenty-two (22) people became the initial members of GCF. During the initial organizational meetings, GCF decided to make southwest Philadelphia the target community for its evangelism and ministry.

Thanks to exponential growth that quickly resulted in a membership of over 100 people and many visitors each Sunday, in October 2006, GCF purchased a church building from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. On Thanksgiving Day, 2006, GCF had their first worship service in their new sanctuary located at 6208 Grays Avenue.

In April of 2012, after years of prayer and discernment, GCF officially became a congregation of the United Church of Christ. Also that year, we launched GCF Mt. Airy, an early Sunday morning extension of our church that worships at Woodcrest United Church of Christ at Mt. Pleasant and Thouron Ave.

Today, GCF has a membership of over 450 and is growing every week. We are:

WELCOMING – Every person, no matter where you are on life's journey, will find a warm and inviting community among us.

WORSHIPING – We take seriously the call to worship Him in spirit and in truth.

WORKING – We believe that we have been called to work for the right of all our brothers and sisters to live in dignity.

WALKING – We believe that faith is a journey, and we are walking together to reach the prize of high calling.

WITNESSING – We have been so blessed by what God has done for us, that we feel compelled to tell someone else. To learn more, visit mygcf.com.

Prayers are requested for Grace Christian Fellowship in Philadelphia and Rev. Cean James.

TOGETHER, WE CAN FOOD FOR TOMORROW!

Do not withhold good from those who deserve it when it's in your power to help them.

Proverbs 3:27 NLT

The Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) is a relief, service, and peace agency of the North American Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches. MCC reflects the biblical call to care for the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the sick, and the imprisoned.

You can help feed the hungry by contributing your money and/or time in support of the MCC Mobile Canner Project, which will be at the MCC Material Resource Center (MRC) from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on March 23, 24, and 25, 2015.

If you are interested in donating a few hours of your time to this three-day operation, contact either the MRC at 267-203-8074 or the following individuals: Glenn C. Moyer at 215-723-0888, Tana Godshall at 215-565-5096, or Earl Young at 610-287-1503. Your tax-deductible contributions may be made payable to "MCC Canner Project" and mailed to the MCC Material Resource Center, 737 Hagey Center Drive, Unit C, Souderton, PA 18964.

In years past, thanks to help from people like you, our local operation processed enough Mennonite meat to provide over 120,000 vital protein-filled meals. This year it is our commitment to again meet that goal. Your support in the form of manpower and monetary donations is critical to this unique program that works not only to feed the hungry but to heal a fractured and broken world through the simple acts of giving and sharing. Go to mcc-harleysville.org, click "Get Involved," then "Meat Canning" for more information on how, together, we can food for tomorrow.
