SUNDAY, JULY 20, 2014

WASHINGTON MEETINGHOUSE SITE

Welcome and Announcements

*Call to Worship

God has searched us and known us.

God knows when we sit down and when we rise up.

God searches out our path and our lying down.

God is acquainted with all our ways.

Before a word is on our tongues, God knows it.

God's hand is ever available to guide us.

Such knowledge is a wonder to us.

It is beyond anything we can attain.

We cannot escape from God's spirit.

There is nowhere to flee from God's presence.

Darkness is as light to our God.

God illuminates the way before us.

*Hymn #577

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We confess, O God, that our lives are a mixture of weeds and good seeds. The weeds choke us and limit our will to respond. We admire the good seeds and want to nourish them. When harvest comes, we know that the good seed will be kept and all else will be judged unfit for your realm. Christ have mercy upon us as we learn of your will. Give us guidance and determination as we obey your command. Forgive our misplaced allegiance when we settle for weeds. May we broadcast the landscape with the good seed of your Word. Amen.

Time of Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Scripture            Psalm 103: 1 – 5 (NRSV p. 482; LP p. 938 – 939)
                              Philippians 3: 7 – 16 (NRSV p. 955; LP p. 1839 – 1840)

*Hymn #71                            “O Bless the Lord, My Soul”

6. His might-y ways by Mo - ses he made known,

1. O bless the Lord, my soul! Let all with - in me join
 2. O bless the Lord, my soul! Let not his mer - cies lie
 3. For God for-gives our sins and God re - lieves our pain;
 4. He crowns our life with love when ran-somed from the grave;

but gave the world his truth and grace by his be - lov - ed Son.

and help my tongue to praise his name whose mer - cies are di - vine.
 for - got - ten in un-thank-ful-ness, from lack of praise to die.

Sermon

“Sanctification vs. ‘Christian Perfection’”
*Sermon of Rev. Oscar S. Kriebel delivered first in 1905 at Washington Schwenkfelder Church
 Adapted By Rev. Nicholas L. Pence, Jr.
 Presented by Lawrence Croll*

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our debts,
 as we forgive our debtors.
 And lead us not into temptation
 but deliver us from evil:
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Offering

*Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly Host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

Thank you, God, for the rich heritage of faith we have received from our ancestors. We are grateful that your spirit is ever with us, assuring us of your acceptance and love. May our offerings share this good news with other children of God who have not yet discovered their identity. May all of us grow in righteousness that we might together experience the reality of your realm in our daily lives, here and now and for all eternity. Amen.

*Hymn #563

“Lord, I Want to Be a Christian”

1. Lord, I want to be a Chris-tian in my heart, in my heart, Lord, I
 2. Lord, I want to be more lov - ing in my heart, in my heart, Lord, I
 3. Lord, I want to be more ho - ly in my heart, in my heart, Lord, I
 4. Lord, I want to be like Je - sus in my heart, in my heart, Lord, I

Rev. Dr. Oscar Schultz Kriebel

The Rev. Dr. Oscar Schultz Kriebel was born on a farm in Hereford Township in 1863. He is a Schwenkfelder descendant on both his mother's and father's sides. Demonstrating a talent for education and teaching, he graduated from Oberlin College in Ohio, followed by study at Oberlin Seminary. He completed his theological training in Berlin. After returning from Germany, he was called to the pastorates of the three churches of the Upper District – Washington, Hosensack and Kraussdale, and became Principal of Perkiomen Seminary. The congregations outgrew the meetinghouses, and as a result of his skilled leadership, Palm Schwenkfelder Church was built in 1911. He served as its first pastor. Dr. Kriebel was active in the Schwenkfelder denomination and the local community, as well as author of theological treatises, which brought him an honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Franklin and Marshall College. He and his wife, Corinne, were the parents of three daughters. After almost forty years of ministry and service, Dr. O. S. Kriebel died suddenly in 1932, at the age of 69. His tombstone is visible as the tallest monument on the Palm Schwenkfelder Cemetery.

WASHINGTON MEETINGHOUSE SITE

The original Schwenkfelder immigrants hoped to find a large tract of land in Pennsylvania where they could live as a group. Since no such plot was available, the family groups scattered. The northernmost group settled in Lehigh, Berks and northern Montgomery Counties. This became known as the "Upper District."

Located in the Upper Perkiomen Valley, Schwenkfelders of the Upper District assembled in homes for worship, prayer and Bible study. Eventually three meeting houses were built - Washington, Hosensack and Kraussdale - to accommodate the growing number of worshippers. Washington, the second meeting house to be built, was erected in 1791 near the village of Clayton in Washington Township, Berks County.

The original Schwenkfelder landowners were the three Schultz brothers: George, Melchior, and Christopher. Later ownership was vested in the youngest, Christopher. His homestead was located nearby, along Kutztown Road, on the far side of the street, where a large home still stands.

Upon Christopher's death in 1788, his son David inherited the land immediately adjoining the cemetery. The meeting house was erected on this land, along with some additional land adjacent to the property, owned by Jeremiah and Morris Schultz, also descendants of Christopher. The first worship service was held here on the Day of Remembrance, September 24, 1791, at which time Rev. Christopher Kriebel delivered the dedicatory address.

The location was used as a neighborhood cemetery for some time prior to the construction of the meeting house, as the grave of Anna Schultz, buried in 1742, testifies. Anna was the first wife of Melchior Schultz, and died at a young age.

Thirty Schwenkfelder immigrants are buried here. Their names are commemorated on a large granite monument. All three Schultz brothers and their wives are buried here. Christopher's original tombstone was later replaced, by his descendants, with one in a more modern style. A stone wall was built around the burial plot in 1810.

The graves in the Washington, Kraussdale and Yeakel family cemeteries are aligned in the direction of due East. It was expected that Jesus' second coming would take place in Jerusalem, so the graves were faced toward the East in order to meet Him when He comes. According to 1 Thessalonians 4:16, "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the archangels' call, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first."

The original building was replaced with a new meeting house in 1824 amid protests from some who thought it sacrilegious to destroy the old building. A school was established in the meeting house in 1834. In 1883 the Washington Meetinghouse was entirely remodeled and was in constant use for the next twenty-eight years.

By the turn of the Twentieth Century it became necessary to acquire more space for the growing Sunday school classes, and so the congregations of the three meeting houses voted to merge, and construct a church. The special congregational meeting called by the Upper District to build Palm Schwenkfelder Church was held at this site. The main inside timbers of the Palm Schwenkfelder Church were cut from trees which formerly stood in the yard of the Washington Meetinghouse.

The Washington Meetinghouse was demolished after the completion of Palm Schwenkfelder Church in 1911. The stones from the walls of the building were used to enclose the entire plot. A granite marker was placed on the spot where the pulpit formerly stood. Inscribed on one face of the marker is a quotation from Caspar Schwenckfeld in German: "WENN ICH CHRISTUM HABE BIN ICH NICHT TRAURIG" – in English: "When I have Christ I am not sad." At the foot of the marker it reads: Erected 1917. GOTT ALLEIN DIE EHRE – in English: "[to] God Alone the Honor," or "Glory to God Alone."
