Prelude

“Brethren We Have Met To Worship”

Mark Hayes

*Call to Worship

Call on God with praise and thanksgiving.

Tell of God’s wonderful works.

Today we open ourselves to God’s presence.

Let the hearts of all who seek God rejoice.

When we eat, we are reminded of God’s provision.

When we drink pure water, we give thanks.

Surely God has blessed us with food and drink.

Daily we are strengthened for tasks we face.

We are guided by God’s laws and statutes.

We benefit from God’s generosity.

Let all the people worship with joy!

Let all whom God has chosen sing together.

*Hymn #802

“Brethren, We Have Met To Worship”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

O God, we are people of the flesh more than people of the spirit. Our lives are not worthy of the gospel of Christ. We admit our resentment when some people we deem unworthy benefit from your generosity. We confess our lack of attention to your laws, your living Word, your prompting Spirit. You are our salvation, our healing, our high opportunity to serve. We choose to belong to you. Accept and change us, we pray.
Amen.

Time of Personal Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Scripture

Exodus 16:2 – 15 (NRSV p. 55; LP p. 109 – 110)

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Offering

Offertory

“Day of Remembrance”

Richard Wienhorst

*Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye Heavenly Host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Prayer of Dedication

Receive our tithes and offerings to your honor and glory, Loving God. May fruitful results occur through and beyond our sharing. Call us into the vineyard of meaningful labor and constructive leisure, that your Word, living through us, may call our neighbors to joyous reunion with you. May we help one another to live in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

*Hymn

Day of Remembrance Hymn

Tune of Duke Street

(Composed for the occasion by Kathy Bieler, Dave Luz, and Nick Pence)

Come joyful servants let us sing
Sharing the story of our faith
Echoing words from ages gone
And witnessed here in us today

Through persecution and distress
Facing grave perils, never swayed
Exiled from their Silesian land
Our kindred's faith still firm and strong

Borne by "St. Andrew" they crossed the sea
'Midst furious waves and tempest strong
Etched by their strife and pain of grief
Faithful, they followed Christ's own call

Led by their prayers to a new, fairer shore
Haven for peace, with grace received
Humbly recalling 'twas God's own hand
Guiding them onward through life's storms

Yet we remember such bravery through faith
Led and inspired by yearnings clear
So, too, with welcome and in grace
We shall live out our Christian call

Sunday School Food Tower

Let's have a little fun while we collect food for our local food pantry! We are calling all youth to bring in food items to their classroom to build a food tower. Next week during Opening Devotions each class will get their picture taken with their tower and then bring all the food items to the Sanctuary. All youth and teachers, please be at Opening devotions next week, thanks 😊

If you are interested in serving on the committee, please see anyone on the Board of Christian Education, or sign up on the sheet outside of the church office.

Endowment for Continuing Education

The Palm Schwenkfelder Church family extends its congratulations to Christopher Mundy, the recipient of our 2014 Endowment for Continuing Education Scholarship award. Christopher is enrolled in a four year program at the University of Delaware Honors College and will pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in the field of Chemical Engineering. He is a graduate of Upper Perkiomen High School and ranked fourth in a senior class of 263 students. Christopher is a past recipient of the American Chemistry Society award and was a member of the Technology Student Association and the National Honor Society. He also served as the captain of his high school's soccer team and has participated at Palm Schwenkfelder Church with the youth group, bell choir, and the Men of Palm Chicken Barbecue. Christopher's future goals include using his background in chemical engineering in the development of alternative energy sources! Since 1997 – 98, The Endowment of Continuing Education scholarship has been awarded to 18 members of our church. Thank you to all who have supported our students through annual giving and estate planning. The future of this program depends upon your generosity. ## A Fresh Take on School of Christ

School of Christ will take place on Sunday October 19, 2014 from 3:00pm to about 5:00pm. The theme will be "Faith Journeys," and this gathering will help us recognize where and how the Holy Spirit has been with us in our individual lives. We hope that, through small-group sharing, believers will be more aware of God's presence, grow stronger in faith, and become more at ease in sharing with non-believers. In the narthex are copies that explain and give an example of the program, which is to be held in small groups. Please bless others with your participation.

Neighbors in Need

On Sunday October 5th, we will be receiving the annual Neighbors in Need Special Offering on behalf of the United Church of Christ (UCC). Neighbors in Need (NIN) is a special mission offering that supports ministries of justice and compassion throughout the United States. One-third of NIN funds support the Council for American Indian Ministries (CAIM). Two-thirds of the offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries (JWM) to support a variety of justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects. This year's theme is 'Imagining' and focuses on literacy, and educational, initiatives. For more information visit ucc.org/nin, or see a member of the Mission Board. We thank you for your prayerful consideration of this offering.

Welcome Back, Pastor Nick!

Join with your church family for a Covered Dish dinner on Saturday, October 11th, to celebrate Pastor Nick's return. Bring your favorite hot dish, salad or dessert to share. Dinner will begin at 5:00PM. After dinner, Pastor Nick will regale us with pictures and stories from his time of sabbatical. It's sure to be fun! Hope to see you there!

Electronics Recycling Day

Be environmentally friendly. Start thinking about what old, unwanted, or outdated appliances you'd like to get rid of and bring them to the Relay for Life Electronics Recycling Day on Saturday, October 25th, from 9:00am - 1:00pm. Smaller items are free, and larger items and appliances carry a small fee. Monetary donations will be accepted and go directly to the Palm Schwenkfelder Church Relay for Life Team.

Ladies' Aid Christmas Stockings

We are asking for your help again this year with monetary donations. We make 75 stockings each year to be sent to the Pennsburg Manor and to Norristown State Hospital, and we try to fill each of them with at least 5 items. With your donations we can do this. Thank you in advance.

Ethel Soffa, Sandra Kriebel, Miriam Hausman, Sallie Wright, Ruth Weaver.

Perkiomen School Settlement

On August 14, 2014, during Mediation before Judge Ott of the Montgomery County Orphan's Court, an agreement was reached in principle to settle the dispute between The Schwenkfelder Church and the Perkiomen School.

Subsequently, the Executive Council of the Church, the Board of the School, the Attorney General and Judge Ott approved and confirmed the settlement terms. No information regarding the terms of the settlement can be released until the appropriate documents have been prepared, approved and submitted to Judge Ott and an Order is released by him. That Order is not anticipated for at least several weeks or possibly longer.

Four preachers to lift up 'the unexpected' at General Synod 2015

When the General Synod of the United Church of Christ gathers next summer in Cleveland, delegates and visitors will celebrate the "Unexpected Places" they find God. To help illuminate those unexpected places, a quartet of pastors and theologians from the UCC and partners will unveil, in their own words, where the StillSpeaking God is found each day.

"As a group, they are diverse in their ministry settings, in their ethnicity and where they come from," said the Rev. Ivy Beckwith, team leader for the UCC's Faith Formation Ministry. "They're a good representation of the UCC and its priorities, and its ecumenical spirit."

The scriptural inspiration for the General Synod theme "Unexpected Places" comes from Genesis 28: 15-16, part of which reads, "Surely God is in this place, and I did not know it." Registration for General Synod 2015, the 30th biennial gathering of the denomination that takes place June 26-30 in Cleveland, open[ed] on Sept. 8.

The Rev. Molly Baskette, a young UCC pastor from Massachusetts with a knack for church revival, delivers the opening sermon Friday evening, with Bishop Dwayne Royster, a community organizer and pastor of a Philadelphia UCC congregation, preaching the Sunday community worship service. The Rev. Mitri Raheb comes from Jerusalem, with the Middle East a topic of conversation throughout General Synod. He preaches Monday evening. The Rev. Sharon Watkins of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) will offer the closing sermon on Tuesday....

Bishop Royster is the executive director of POWER (Philadelphians Organized to Witness, Empower and Rebuild) and founding pastor of Living Water United Church of Christ located in the North Philadelphia section of Philadelphia. Royster is an advocate for preparing congregations for the ministry of availability, saying that, "Ministry should not be limited to Sunday mornings. Sunday is a time of worship. Ministry should be done Monday through Sunday at the bus stops, at the supermarkets, in workplaces, at soccer games – wherever people are."

Registration for Youth@GS groups opens October 15. To read the full article written by Anthony Moujaes, visit: ucc.org and search for 4 preachers lift up.

Search Committee formed to begin seeking new UCC General Minister and President

written by Anthony Moujaes

When the Rev. Geoffrey Black announced his retirement in mid-August, the United Church of Christ Board promised to move quickly to identify a candidate to serve as the denomination's next general minister and president. A search committee of 18 members, confirmed by the board, is now in place, ready to tap the next executive to lead the UCC into the future.

"I appreciate the board affirming the choices for the search committee," the Rev. Bernard R. Wilson said. "We look forward to working with the committee to select the next general minister and president for the church."

Wilson, who chairs the board, and the Rev. Kent Siladi, conference minister of the Connecticut Conference of the UCC, will co-chair the General Minister and President Search Committee, which must identify a candidate by mid-to-late-February.

The 18-member committee is a diverse mix of current board members, former board members, conference ministers, and youth representatives. Eight members are women and 10 are men, eight members are ordained and 10 are lay people, while nine are people of color and nine are Euro-American.

Black, general minister and president of the UCC since 2010, plans to end his tenure at the conclusion of General Synod 30 (June 26-30, 2015), giving the United Church Board an 11-month window to identify his successor.

The search committee will open an extended period for a submission of profiles, and must interview the candidates it wants to consider before making its choice by no later than the end of February. From there, the 52 members of United Church of Christ Board will meet with the candidate during its Spring 2015 meeting in March, and must confirm him or her by a two-thirds vote for election by the full General Synod.

Wilson said the committee will require "careful, prayerful discernment," and must work within "a tight timeline." UCC Bylaws state that a vacancy for general minister and president can be filled one of two ways: Wilson and the board could have appointed another national officer of the church to the position as an interim, and filled the position by General Synod 2017 in Baltimore, or they could have formed a search committee to identify a candidate for election by mid-2015.

"In my judgment, leaving the church on hold for two-and-a-half years was not in the best interest of the church," Wilson said. "We have this new board, nimble and responsive with 52 quality people, and I think we can make a decision in a prayerful and intentional way."

Prayers are requested for Linfield UCC, Linfield and Rev. Ruth Chartier.
